

Plate 1. Mossy Creek

Plate 2. Mossy Creek

March 21, 2008

Plate 3. PEM wetlands along Mossy Creek.

March 21, 2008

Plate 4. PEM wetlands along Mossy Creek with Eurasian grasses and some relic wetland plants.

March 21, 2008

Plate 5. The unrestored unnamed tributary of Mossy Creek and unrestored PEM wetland.

March 21, 2008

Plate 6. Wetlands along the unnamed tributary to be restored.

Plate 7. The spring box at the headwater of the unnamed tributary.

Plate 8. Structure to allow access by trout fishermen.

Plate 9. The existing bridge that will be retained and fenced.

Plate 10. Eurasian pasture grasses are the dominant vegetation. They will be replaced with native vegetation during restoration.

Plate 11. The farm house that is eligible for the Historic Register

Plate 12. The old, abandoned railroad grade.
Minimum 100 ft. buffers are proposed along each side of streams/wetlands.